Dear Miss Hage:

Thanks to your suggestion we did get some information on Personnel Policies for our Library, but as yet have done nothing about making a set of By-laws or Constitution. I am anxious to have something of this kind as soon as possible, and would appreciate it if you can send me a copy of yours, which I can go over before the next Board Meeting, and perhaps make changes necessary for our set-up. Rather imagine that they will adopt whatever I may suggest if practical. Of course we have always one person who questions and holds up everything.

Did you hear that The Board of Supervisors of Woodbury County is being sued, or at least there is to be a hearing to show if they can levy the Library taxes against the village of Correctionville? The Board has decided not to get into it - Believe this is best due to the ill feeling that it might cause as well as the publicity and money involved in a law suit. Think eventually that this will have to be settled by the State; if a community may withdraw after they have established a tax supported library. If not it will cost Correctionville a tax of four and fraction mills, supporting both libraries. More fun!

Hope you are enjoying our nice winter weather.

Sincerely

Agnes J. Buskirk

Dear Miss Buskirk:

Enclosed is the copy of our by-laws which you requested earlier in the month. I'm very sorry not to have answered your letter long before this, but I suspect you know how it goes to prevent ones doing a number of things when they should be done. It seems to me there's always something more vital to the library which pushes correspondence to the bottom of the pile every time it approaches the top!

Miss Butler had sent me a clipping about the Correctionville deal. It is, indeed, a bad state of affairs. I shall be interested in its outcome.

Best wishes to you in your work.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth B. Hage, Librarian
